

LTT Wireless is an exclusive Verizon Business Solutions Distributor (BSD)

Become a Verizon Business Solutions Provider (BSP)

Start getting paid for referring customers interested in purchasing Verizon smartphones, tablets, mobile hotspots and basic phones. Acquire your client base by prospecting, networking, or existing relationships with business clients.

Verizon business customers prefer to work through you due to a specific value add you are already offering:

- Master agencies, independent tech consultants, and other VAR's
- Telecom Expense Management (TEMS providers)
- Software or hardware providers whose solutions require mobile devices.

You will instantly have access to:

- 2 hour SLA on order entries keyed by our team
- Free 2 day shipping on devices
- National footprint
- Devices drop-ship directly from Verizon Wireless
- Proactive promo updates and marketing materials
- Payouts on time monthly, paired with commissionable line details

LTT Wireless is the only BSD with 8 years Verizon direct enterprise experience. We are the go-to resource for distribution offering the highest payouts in the industry. Our staff is entirely ex-Verizon employees with expertise in custom offers and internal operations. LTT is an exclusive Verizon Wireless Distributor, and does not represent any other wireless carrier.

More than just a distributor. Traditional Verizon distributors will only key your orders, forcing you with continued education requirements, industry know how, and front lines for escalations. LTT is flexible to work entirely on the backend and never be customer facing -or- we can engage customers to provide quotes, close deals, manage accounts, support ticket escalations and even quarterly account reviews. We work fast, and we deliver
